Community Sentence Order Requirements

For offences committed on or after 4 April 2005

This handout tells you about the Exclusion Requirement that the court has decided you must do as part of your sentence. You might also be given other handouts to help explain any other Requirement or Requirements the court has decided you must do.

Exclusion Requirement

Exclusion means you cannot go to a particular place or places on certain days and at certain times, for as long as the Requirement lasts. For example, this place might be part of a town, a football ground or someone's home. You have been ordered to stay away from this place or places because you have caused trouble there in the past.

You may be electronically monitored, which will help us to know where you are. If so, you will be given tagging equipment by an electronic monitoring company. They will make sure you know how to use it.

The person responsible for your sentence (your 'responsible officer') will discuss the details of your Exclusion Requirement with you. This might be an officer of the Probation Service or an electronic monitoring officer

If you need help or advice about anything to do with your sentence, you can always talk to your Offender Manager.

We keep information about you in our records. It is kept safely and securely. If you want to find out about seeing this information please ask your responsible officer.
